

Prof. Dr. Ziya SELÇUK

He received his bachelor's, master's, and PhD degrees in Psychological Counseling and Guidance. He has hundreds of articles and several books on guidance, behaviour observation, communication, learning, and humour. He has worked as an academician and administrator in higher education institutions. In addition, Dr. Selçuk has worked as a chairman of Board of Education and Discipline, as a trustee vice chairman at TED University, as a board member of trustees at Kültür University, as a director of educational policy organization, TEDMEM, as a board member of directors of ERG, as an executive board member of TUBITAK- SOBAG, as a board member of directors of Chess Federation, as a chairman of Volleyball Federation Education Committee, as an administrator of Psychological Counseling and Guidance Association, as a columnist, and as World Bank-UNICEF project specialist. At present, he has been working as a founding president of Nine Types of Humour Model Association, as a board member of directors of Turkish Intelligence Foundation, as a co-founder of BGA, as an editor of Education and Science Journal, as a board member of Yunus Emre Institute Science Diplomacy, and as a founder of Maya Schools. Moreover, he gives hundreds of lectures every year, and he offers counselling services in the state schools.